Dear Bernice:

Must this letter finds all well with you and enjoying your genealogical and family group sheet preparations.

My oldest sister, May Archibald, whom you have met and I have spent a lot of time and some money trying to resolve a few contentious points, one of them the marriage date of our grandparents, Willard and Mary Melissa, another the baptism date of the oldest daughter, Mary Ann, and finally, whether Uncle Jay was ever endowed.

After researching all the sources we could find including Salt Lake, Nathan H. Gardner, Bernella Gardner Jones and Shirley Snow Hansen, we have concluded the information correct as shown on the family group sheets accompanying this letter comprising those of Willard Snow - Mary Melissa Meeks; Joseph Atha Snow - Martha Lenora Stringam (my parents); and lastly, that of my wife and I.

Accidentally, the Temple Index Bureau records both 1880 and 1881 for ~~her~~ ^{your mother's} birth whereas she records in her own personal history 1879 which you will see on the group sheet we have used.

In any event for better or for worse, our sheets are now filed with the Genealogical Department Ancestral File in Salt Lake by our daughters on the first name on the Pedigree chart and hope they do not engender too much flack.

Isbeth and I plan to leave Lethbridge March 18 and travel via Salt Lake, where we will be set apart, to start labor as officiators in the Washington D.C. Temple about April 1st to begin an 18-month call.

When you have completed the group sheets for your parents and brother's and sisters' families I would be interested in obtaining copies of these if convenient.
